

Syzygium australe

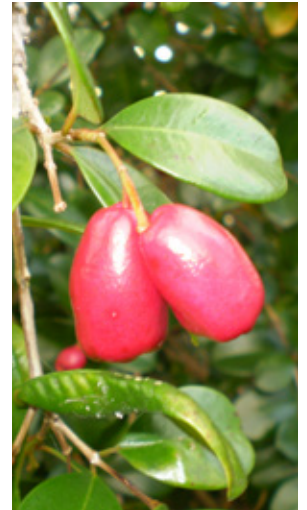

Medium Tree / Hedge

Native Evergreen

Flowering: Yes

Colour

Native Australian tree with green ovate leaves which turn darker as they mature. Producing a dense cover of white flowers followed by red berries.

Ideal for screens and hedges as it can be shaped. There is a glossy sheen to the leaves and foliage growth.

Tolerates most soils in a full sun to part shade position. Prefers moist well drained soils. Responds well to pruning.

